Working under the guidance of Unseen's Development team, you will be the voice of Unseen on your Fargo/Moorhead's college campus! As an Unseen Ambassador you will be in charge of setting up and supervising Unseen booths at campus events. You will also be a contact for volunteering at Unseen. You will be advised on how to communicate about Unseen and our Partners.

Responsibilities:

- Become a student learning about the problem of human trafficking, its root causes, and Unseen's solution to the problem
- Know when events will happen on campus that would give the opportunity for an Unseen presence
- Apply for said events
- Retrieve materials from Unseen's office for booths and other campus events
- Set up and supervise booth during events
- Communicate with Unseen advisor on scheduling booth supplies

Requirements:

- Outgoing ability to communicate Unseen's message
- Ability to take direction from others
- Willingness to learn
- Time management skills
- A semester long commitment
- Goal-driven
- Ability to stay on task and work independently
- A good fit with Unseen's mission, partners, culture, and team
- Positive can-do attitude. Proactive. Self starter. Problem solver.
- Comfortable with our friendly (hypoallergenic) office dog, Kahuna
